Message from the Board Chair

It has been a pleasure and privilege to represent you these past two years as your board chair of the Utah Credit Union Association. My appreciation to all the credit unions for your support of the Association and encouragement during the past year.

We all know what a tumultuous year it was, with many adjustments to how we serve our members and take care of our staff. One of the many things I love about the Association and the credit union industry is the willingness to help each other, whether it's a question on policies or how to handle staffing issues during a pandemic. We are all in this together.

The Association staff has done a great job adjusting to the necessary changes made in how we serve our member credit unions. Face-to-face training and meetings were curtailed for a bit, but the staff was up to the challenge and has done a fantastic job under the leadership of Scott Simpson, who faces constant challenges in defending Utah's credit unions on a day-to-day basis. My thanks to all of them.

Along with the staff, the Association is in good hands with a board of directors that is dedicated to making sure the Association is not only a support and resource to Utah's credit unions, but is also focused to ensure credit unions can serve all Utahns.

I'm optimistic and look forward to the future of credit unions in Utah. Dealing with the consequences of the pandemic, I believe from the bad comes good. We had to do things differently during the pandemic and learned new ways. Some of those new ideas and processes can and will be continued in the future for the industry and our members.

Sincerely, Dean HirabayashiUtah Credit Union Association Board Chair

Message from the President

In the report I wrote at this time last year, I mentioned that we were, at that moment, in the middle of the second global financial crisis of our careers. I don't consider myself a particularly hyperbolic but as I look back at that time, it was hard to see anything but crisis.

Today, having all watched 2020 come and go, it is clear that we didn't have a crisis. It did not become a crisis because in great measure credit unions continued to do their jobs.

You made tectonic adjustments with precision and care. From the operational adjustments to your member interactions to the unprecedented effort to keep your employees safe, Utah credit unions have a story to tell. You kept your foot on the throttle of serving the day-to-day needs of your understandably anxious members.

From where we stand today, it's clear that you absolutely did your part. You stood up. You showed up and you delivered when it mattered most. One might say that is what credit unions have always done. True enough, but this stretch is for the record books.

As I mentioned last week in my discussion with the Governor, it feels like we are on the cusp of a wave of economic opportunity. We're not out of the woods yet but given what you've been through in the last couple of decades, I'm convinced that there's no industry that is better seasoned or more capable to manage the future than Utah's credit unions.

We consider it a great honor to work alongside you in your noble mission.

Here's to a strong 2021!!

Minutes of the 86th Annual Business Meeting Utah Credit Union Association

Utah Credit Union Association June 24, 2020

Chairman Dean Hirabayashi welcomed all attendees to the 86th Annual Business Meeting of the Utah Credit Union Association at a 10:00 a.m.

Chairman Hirabayashi called the meeting to order at 10:03 a.m.

Report of the Credentials Committee

Heather line served on the credentials committee. She reported that there were 28 registered delegates with 28 credit unions represented.

Chairman Hirabayashi explained that attendees will need to "raise their hand" in the Zoom call if they would like to comment or ask a question.

Stephen Nelson gave a brief tutorial on how to do that on the Zoom platform.

Chairman Hirabayashi also explained that in lieu of the traditional parliamentary procedure, beacuase of the nature of these video calls, we will conduction business via general consent.

Chairman Hirabayashi introduced the members of the board. Board members present:

- Dean Hirabayashi, National JACL Credit Union
- Sterling Nielson, Mountain America Credit Union
- René Clarke, Eastern Utah Community Credit Union
- Ken Payne, Freedom Credit Union
- · Randy Gailey, Horizon Credit Union
- Todd Adamson, Cyprus Credit Union
- Rene Clarke, Eastern Utah Community Credit Union
- Thomas Gourdin, Firefighters Credit Union
- Shane London, Deseret First Credit Union
- John Lund, America First Credit Union
- Tammy Phillips, Varex Credit Union
- Brad Barber, Members First Credit Union.
- Paul Atkinson, Alpine Credit Union

Chairman Hirabayashi recognized the guests:

 Representatives from Alloya Corporate Credit Union and CUNA Mutual Group.

Approval of minutes

Chairman Hirabayashi presented the minutes of the 85th Annual Business Meeting, which were contained in the 2019 Annual Report for review. There were no objections, additions, deletions, or corrections.

Chairman Hirabayashi asked to dispense with the reading of the minutes and accept them as printed, in the absence of objection.

No objections.

Committee Reports

Chairman Hirabayashi presented the reports from the Association Committees, found in the 2019 Annual Report. Asked for any questions for the Committee Chairs. There were no questions for the Committee Chairs.

Report of the Nomination Committee

Chairman Hiraybayashi gave the time to Brad Barber chairman of the Nomination Committee. He reported that the board had three seats up for re-election. The incumbent board members had no one run against them. They were Dean Hirabayashi, Shane London and Todd Adamson.

Brad Barber ask for the candidates to be elected by acclimation, in the absence of objection.

There were no objections.

Other Business

Chairman Hirabayashi called for a discussion of unfinished business. No other business

Report of CUNA Mutual

Chairman Hirabayashi asked Joe Rode from CUNA Mutual to speak. Joe gave a quick update on the current Covid-19 pandemic and their response. CUNA Mutual remains strong from a capital perspective and it has been able to invest in new companies and technology. Brye Austin jumped on the call and thanked CUNA Mutual customers for their continued support.

Report of Alloya Corporate Credit Union

Chairman Hirabyashi asked Todd Adams from Alloya to speak. Todd shared slides with the group. He thanked Todd Adamson, who serves on Alloya's Board and Shane London, who serves on Alloya's Supervisory Committee. Todd also thanked Cindy Maxwell, for her work in Utah.

Report of Chairman of the Board

Chairman Hirabayashi gave a quick update and on current events, like the Covid-19 pandemic, PPP loans and forgiveness and racial justice and equality. Chairman Hirabayashi feels that the credit union industry is very capable of helping their membership with these issues. Chairman Hirabayashi thanked the staff of the Credit Union Association. He also thanked credit unions for their membership with the Association. He feels the industry is stronger together.

Report of the President

Scott Simpson thanked everyone for attending the meeting. Mr. Simpson explained that it is very strange to speak of 2019, because of the current crisis situation in 2020. As of the end of 2019 there were 61 credit unions based in Utah, with over 3 million members in the state.

Mr. Simpson thanked the credit unions for making it through the Covid crisis without disruptions of service to their members. Scott gave some quick numbers on the PPP loan program.

Mr. Simpson reiterated that situations like the current crisis are the reason credit unions were created and continue to exist. He looks forward to continuing his work with credit unions and he feels it is an honor to defend what credit unions do.

Meeting adjournment

Chairman Hirabayashi concluded the meeting at 10:45 a.m.
